THE BUCKEYE DINING SALOON .- The splendid new eating house recently opened by Steele & Burnes on the corner of Illinois and Georgia streets is now in full blast, and it is a first rate place for a hungry man or an epicure to visit. The marble tables in the dining room are beautiful to look upon; but, when adorned by the soups and dishes that the famous cook at the establishment knows so well how to prepare, the beauty of ing matter. the tables grows sublime. The house is doing a land office business, and no wonder, for the best all hours of the day and night.

It Delivered by the carrier, within the city, 15 cents per is this: Those who have survived in the 80th Regiment Indiana Volunteers would be very much gratified if the Paymaster would make his appearance. I cannot see why Uncle Sam should neglect to pay his soldiers. Our families need the money; the sick soldiers need the money; and certainly means should be provided and promptly handed over to those who are enduring so many hardships and privations in the service of the Government. THE GRAPEVINE NEWS .- The grapevine telegraph has been down for some time, but the general closing of the regular offices on Christmas, and the absence, or rather the non issue of dailies vesterday, either here or in Cincinnati, gave the old reliable grapevine a chance to get up sensations, and it was freely used. The stories from the Army of the Cumberland followed each other so fast that it was difficult to keep up with them, and impossible to run them down. We give a few of them as a specimen:

John Morgan attacked our forces at Glasgow and routed them, destroying large quantities of army stores. Our troops rallied near Cave City and were reinforced by three thousand men, when they awaited Morgan's attack and defeated him, killing six of his officers.

Morgan is within thirty miles of Louisville The alarm is greater than it was during General Nelson's stay there. Trains on the Nashville road do not venture beyond Bowling Green.
